

Publication Date:
June 2, 2026

ISBN 13: 978-1-61088-711-3 (Hardcover)
978-1-61088-713-7 (Ebook)
978-1-61088-715-1 (Audiobook)

Page Count: 320 Pages
Retail: $27.95

Trim Size: 6" X 9" portrait

Format: Hardcover/Ebook/Audiobook

Publisher: Bancroft Press

BISAC :

FC059000 (FICTION / Thrillers / Espionage)

FIC014050: FICTION / Historical / 20th
Century / World War II & Holocaust

Comp Titles

The Alice Network
Night Soldiers
Beneath a Scarlet Sky
The Nightingale

Ordering Info

SCB Distributors
info@scbdistributors.com
800-729-6423
(Also available through all major wholesalers)

Publisher

Bruce Bortz
Bancroft Press
bruceb@bancroftpress.com
410-627-0608 (cell)

Author's Awards

Miriam in the Shadows

By John Winn Miller

Her Mission Could Save D-Day. Her Love Could Doom it.

Award-winning author John Winn Miller returns with Miriam in the Shadows, the third and most gripping standalone installment of the Peggy C Saga.

After escaping Nazi-occupied France and the Netherlands twice, Jewish Special Operations Executive agent Miriam Maduro is sent on her deadliest mission yet—sabotaging Hitler's secret weapons program.

But as danger closes in, Miriam is forced to face the ghosts of her past and the ultimate question: will she complete her mission and save D-Day, or save the man she loves?

Best-selling authors, historians love it

"A taut and compelling example of World War II fiction and a fine historical thriller."

—ALAN FURST, New York Times Bestselling Author of Night Soldiers

"An entourage of fascinating characters, an engaging premise, all briskly paced, makes for a taut, tight thriller."

—STEVE BERRY, New York Times Bestselling Author of The Templar Legacy

"Deeply researched and tautly told ... The characters, the setting, and the story ring with authenticity. Highly recommended."

—MARK SULLIVAN, #1 bestselling author of Beneath a Scarlet Sky

"In the shadows of espionage, John Winn Miller blends historical facts with human fictions for a unique adventure to grab readers' eyes."

—JAMES GRADY, New York Times Bestselling Author of Six Days of the Condor and the Upcoming Shadows on Sidewalks

"In my experience as a historian of special operations and espionage, I have rarely come across a novel that evokes 'true life' like this book. (It's) a great story."

—JAMES STEJSKAL, former Special Forces and CIA officer, historian, author of No Moon as Witness (an OSS/SOE history) and The Snake Eater Chronicle

Critics hail it as mesmerizing, clever, authentic

"EDITOR'S CHOICE: An engrossing read, mesmerizing in dialogue, plot twists, and surprising events."—HISTORICAL NOVEL SOCIETY

"Highly recommended for libraries and readers seeking authentic, gripping World War II and Jewish survivor experiences."—MIDWEST REVIEW

"FIVE STARS: A smart, gripping novel that respects both its subject matter and its audience. It rewards attentive readers with depth, authenticity, and a protagonist whose courage feels earned rather than embellished."—MANHATTAN BOOK REVIEW

"This novel delivers a complex, ticking-clock thriller, prison break, and romance-under-fire that cleverly heightens suspense on every page."— J.J. BARNES, Editor-in-Chief, The Table Read Magazine, the UK's Arts and Entertainment Magazine of the Year 2025

JOHN WINN MILLER is an award-winning investigative reporter (Pulitzer finalist), foreign correspondent, newspaper editor and publisher, novelist, screenwriter, and indie movie producer. His previous books, The Hunt for the Peggy C and Rescue Run, have been recognized for their historical accuracy and thrilling storytelling and have won numerous awards. Although Miriam in the Shadows is a sequel, it can be read as a standalone novel.

Vol. 1

Vol. 2

CONTACT

jwm77uk@gmail.com
www.johnwinnmiller.com
(859) 797-6122